PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

“Failure will never overtake me – if my determination to succeed is powerful “

He was selected to lead a team of scientists to build a rocket in a country – poverty stricken and a shadow of its past glory. The odds were tremendous-the project was over ambitious, the talent pool very small, the infrastructure almost laughable. Parts of the rocket were transported by bicycle or by bullock cart, yet he persevered against all odds. Many a time he had to go back to the drawing board as his design was a failure. But succeed he did, leading a nation of 1.2 billion people from the bullock cart to the space age. This project the SLV3 – was the basic design for the PSLV –the launch vehicle for sending rockets and satellites into space. Surely you recognize this person – Scientist, rocket man, global thought leader, President of India – Dr APJ Abdul Kalam.

Stories abound on the success of people- famous writers, scientists, artistes, businessmen and industrialists. When we read about the success of a company or an individual; we are excited, envious and all of us want to become like them. But how many of us think and reflect about the journey behind the success - the sleepless nights, the endless toil, the grueling schedule which ultimately lead to success. Too often we give up just as success is within our grasp.

Let's remember not to be disheartened by failure, but have the courage of our convictions to build up again. Let's not be afraid of toil, but labor on till the goal is reached. Let's be like the legendary phoenix that arose, from the ashes to reinvent into a better version of itself.
